Marks Burial of Pope Pius X
In St. Peter's Cathedral

Was Beloved By All the World

Rome, Italy, Aug. 22.—The entombment of the late Pope Pius X took place this evening at sunset. The great basilica of St. Peter's was in semi-darkness. A flickering light came from the perpetually burning tapers about the Shrine of the candles in the chapel, where the entombment stood.

Those who witnessed the ceremony, numbering about 1,000, came by special invitation and included the diplomatic representatives accredited to the Holy See, the prelates and members of the Roman aristocracy.

The body of the Pope lies in a express wood coffin, in which rests a gold cross. This is encased in zinc and finally in an oak casket. On the casket is the inscription:

"Here lies the body of Pius X, born June 2, 1857; died August 20, 1914."
The coffin was placed within the tomb while Cardinal Della Valle recited prayers for the dead, accompanied by all present, kneeling. A monument to Pius X will be erected in the crypt.

POLICE COURT.

Judge Wotack had two cases last Saturday, first was Lewis Robinson, fast driving. He imagined he was at Latonia, but he got 4630. He paid up. Emmett Crawford, of Hillsboro, breach of the peace. Fine $15.00. Paid his fine.

ANOTHER RESIDENCE TO BE ERECTED

L. M. Lane, real estate agent, has sold for Mrs. Hiram H. Collins, a lot 33x120, in East Second street to William Gantley, who will build a handsome residence on the property.

THE "DRYS"

Hold Anti-Saloon League Meeting at the Courthouse Last Saturday.

This meeting, considering the short notice, was well attended, about sixty men and thirty five or forty ladies were present.

The first speaker, the Rev. J. W. Simpson, could not find the chairman, but he showed that he was able to take care of himself. The Rev. gentleman handled the question along general lines. He made an excellent speech for his side of the question.

He was followed by Miss Alice Lloyd of Germantown. Miss Lloyd confined herself almost entirely to the resolution passed at a meeting some weeks ago by the business men of this city. She, in a skillful, logical and forceful manner dissected the resolutions from the temperance side. She told of the drunkenness on the Germantown pike, and of times she and other women had been annoyed by drunken men from Maysville.

She also presented the economic value of drunken and sober farm hand.

Tuesday night the whirlwind from Georgia will speak at the Courthouse. The Lexington Herald devoted a half column to her.

MAYSVILLE TO HAVE MORE TOBACCO WAREHOUSES

A "wireless" rumor comes to The Public Ledger that two more large tobacco warehouses are to be erected in the East End.

This year's tobacco crop will be a good one and assures at least 85 per cent. of a full crop, which will be larger than last year.

COMING.

Mrs. Mary Harris Armour, an advocate of Prohibition, said to be the greatest woman orator in America will speak at the Courthouse, Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. Mrs. Armour, a typical Southerner, starts and fascinates with her marvelous enthusiasm, tenderness and power.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Having sold our business and desiring to wind up all accounts by September 1st, we ask all our patrons to call and settle accounts on or before that date. All those having accounts against the firm, will present same for payment.

BATTLE PALL

Overwhelms Europe
--Greatest Slaughter of History Is On

Day of Reckoning Comes To Nations Guided By Ungodly Rulers

World-Wide War Will Wipe Out Dynasties

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

Paris, France, August 23.—The following official announcement was issued tonight:

"A great battle is now in progress along a vast line extending from Mons to the frontier of Luxembourg. Our troops, in conjunction with the British, have assumed everywhere the offensive. We are faced by almost the whole tier main army, both active and reserve."

The French and British troops are facing the greater part of the German army along a battle line which extends from Mons to the Luxembourg frontier. The allied armies which have been concentrating at strategic points for the past two weeks are believed to be strongly entrenched with powerful fortifications and are holding back the invaders.

An official announcement issued at Paris warns the people that the tide of battle may ebb and flow; that there will be actions along this great line which are bound to be responded to by just as stirring counteraction by the German and that the people must wait for the outcome of the first phase of this great battle, which will probably last several days, before it can be determined upon which side victory rests.

Japs In the Fight.

Japan has come into the war of nations. The Emperor of Japan declared war on Germany and the Jap fleet and land forces are ready for the struggle around Kiao-Chow, the German protectorate in China. Late dispatches from Tsing-Tan say that the German preparation is complete and that the territory will be defended to the utmost. Several German warships are lying in harbor at Tsing-Tan and the waters have been mined.

Coincident with Japan's declaration of war against Germany the British of local news bureau announced that the Austrian government has ordered the cruiser Kaiserin Elizabeth, now at Tsing-Tan to disarm, and have further instructed the crew to proceed to Tientsin. This apparently eliminates Austria from the eastern conflict.

Reports are current that Francis Joseph is seriously ill. These reports have been denied, but they are being reiterated.

While the Liege forts are said to be holding out an official statement from the French government tells of the blowing up of Fort Chaudfontaine by the Belgian commander after it had been razed by the German guns.

London, Aug. 22.—After nearly three weeks of mobilization, the battle of science has begun.

Roughly speaking, the Germans are trying to work around the allies' flank in Belgium, while the French are attempting to apply the same process to the Germans in Alsace.

Almost all the encounters which have gone before have been mere reconnaissance. The defeat of a regiment here and there has been proclaimed as a great victory, but in this grapple of hundreds of thousands most of these affairs have had no significance.

The official announcements from both sides have been candid so far.

From the standpoint of the allies each important feature in Saturday's development is the great battle which began in the morning on the Namur-Charleroi line. This is being fought on the position chosen by the allies.

A German official statement says that troops under the command of the Crown Prince of Bavaria, fighting between Metz and Vosges, took 10,000 prisoners and fifty guns. It adds that the French troops opposing the Germans comprised eight army corps.

POLITICAL VIEW FROM THE BIG METROPOLIS.

New York, August 22.—For the first time in thirty years there will be no Labor Day parade in New York City this fall. The labor unions have decided to take the money the parade would cost and use it to relieve unemployed union men.

In times past, in New York City, many thousands of union men have marched on the first Monday in September. Their parades have been spectacular. No money was spared in making them a success. The horses in the parade were union-shod and the men union-equipped. There were union bands and union refreshments. So that the expense to the union men for their Labor Day parade, in one way or another led to an expenditure running into a great sum of money. All this is to be foregone this year and the unions, very commendably, will turn the money to help their unemployed brothers.

This instance of practical charity on the part of Union organizations is attracting wide attention over the country and has caused considerable comment, especially in view of President Wilson's statement that the hard times are purely "psychological."

One good natured workman says he is "sure getting psychological pay checks." He also says he is buying "psychological shoes" and probably will soon be eating out of a "psychological dinner pail."

Watch the Democracy lay all the consequences of its own short-comings in Administration policy since March 4, 1913, to the European war crisis. The Titanic struggle across the seas makes a fine cloud of battle smoke to obscure Democratic incompetency just before election. The question for the thoughtful voter to answer for himself, however, has nothing to do with the war. It is, simply, what was happening to the country in the way of business and financial depression as the result of Democratic mis-government for months before the war broke out? And, answering that the voter may ask again, how much worse off will this land of ours be along this same direction now that the war is one and the revenues of a loathed "com petitive tariff," that were fast diminishing during a time of peace, must decrease still further because foreign "com petition" is stifled by the conflict of arms abroad.

The people are watching with a grim smile while the Democrats are vainly trying to transform the old Ship of State into a merchant marine, now that the war in Europe has brought home to this country at last the great necessity for the rebuilding of American shipping along lines advocated by the Republican party for years.

If this country had been enjoying the benefits of a Republican protective tariff for the past year and a half, instead of being under the Underwood Democratic makeshift, it would not now be confronted with the necessity for imposing the always hated internal revenue war tax in order to meet the expenses of government, and that, too, all because of a war in which we have no part.

When revenues under a miserable pretense of a Democratic tariff are failing fast, how hard it is to resort to an internal revenue tax and lay it to a European war!

It is just as well for the United States that the Panama Canal is far removed from the seat of Europe's war. The temptation to use or destroy such a 10,000 mile cutoff might easily induce some hard-pressed or audacious combatant to violate American neutrality and unpreparedness. Philadelphia Telegraph.

THE FRUITS OF WAR.

We know what the fruits of war are in sacked cities, in commerce destroyed, in industry suspended, in lamentation and great mourning. Let us see what other fruits may come from this conflict.

A telegram from Paris declares: "A decree granting civil and political rights to all Jews in Russia will be issued by the Czar without delay." This is a concession to the Jews of all nations. At this time it is especially a concession to the United States. We have abrogated our treaty with Russia and we have patiently waited for the time to come when Russia would see the wisdom of recognizing the fact that a Jew who is an American citizen stands upon a perfect equality with all other citizens of America, and that he must be accorded the rights of American citizenship wherever he journeyed.

This decree goes beyond that. It not only conforms to this doctrine, but it makes conformation easy by giving to the Jewish citizens of Russia civil and political rights and places them upon an equality with other people.

It is a great gain for civilization. It is a long step toward permanent peace between nations. Let us hope this is not an idle rumor, like so many that have come across the wires during the past thirty days; but, if it be nothing more at this time than a rumor, it carries a suggestion to Russia concerning the best method of restoring the most intimate and cordial relations with the United States.

EVOLUTION IN WRITING.

The Danville Messenger thinks simplified spelling has worked very well, but remarks that "What the newspaper men and compositors want is simplified writing." The newspapers do run up against some tough propositions, but there is much less of that sort of thing than there used to be. Type-writing is increasing enormously. A few years hence machine writing will be universal and it will not be necessary for a man to do much work with pen and ink or pencil. In fact, it will hardly be necessary for the kids at school to waste much time on penmanship. Now if somebody will only invent a spelling machine to accompany every typewriter, the epistolary frontiers of the human family will be brought down to the irreducible minimum.

Officials of European governments certainly are using "dum-dum" words. First there was "aeroplanes" and now there is "moratorium." The first means—ah, look them up yourself.—(Incidental Times-Star.)

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.

The Short-Fingered Man.

"I know you by your thumb mark,"
Yelled Detective B. McHumb.
"You're wrong again," said Willie Ship.
"I haven't any thumb."

"You're my prisoner!" said the great detective.
"But—"

"I loathe louts," snapped the great detective. "You talked Winkie Handover to death on his farm in Onampburg last Tuesday a week, and you're my prisoner. Don't force me to repeat it again. I recognized you by the printed description, and in all my twenty-five years of detective I have never yet gone wrong on a printed description. The Man Handover's murderer had the third finger of his left hand shot away at the second joint while he was fleeing from the farm. Look at your left hand!"

"But—"

"Didn't I tell you how I hate louts? I never saw a lugger like that one of yours before in my life. Well, are you coming?"

"You must listen!" cried the short-fingered man desperately. "You must! You must! I admit one of my fingers is missing from the second joint up, but—"

"Will you cease those louts?" roared the great detective.

"But I am a school teacher, and I wore that lugger down by rubbing off chalk marks with it every day for the past forty years."

And after he showed that his pockets were stuffed with chewing gum condensed from gargle, the great detective, much chagrined, could not doubt him longer. —Louisville Times.

OUR CITIZEN'S DEMAND

Fully Complied With—A Maysville Resident Furnished It.

There are few items which appear in this paper more important to Maysville people than the statement published last week. In the first place, it is from a citizen of Maysville and can be thoroughly relied upon. In the second place it indisputably proves that Dean's Kidney Pills do their work thoroughly and not temporarily. Read this carefully: Frederick Dresel, 1233 E. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I was troubled with induration of the bladder and annoyance from my kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had a severe pain across the small of my back which interfered with my duties. When a friend advised me to try Dean's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. Since using them I have had no trouble. All I said about Dean's Kidney Pills before, still holds good."

Mr. Dresel is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Dean's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Dean's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Dresel had—the remedy backed by human testimony. 50¢ all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "Whom Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name."

OLD EVILS IN NEW FORMS.

Early in the last century, following several bad harvests, a movement in Kentucky resulted in the passage of a stay law. In those days they did not know what moratorium meant.

The Court of Appeals declared the act unconstitutional. It was an act impairing the obligations of a contract already made. It was taking the property of one person for the benefit of another.

The Legislature set aside the court and established a new court. The case was argued out before the people. They set aside the New court, established the Old court, and required men to live by contracts they had made.

The beneficial effects of that controversy are felt in Kentucky to this day. The stay law, or moratorium, was the result of panic, not of reason, and when the hard times passed Kentucky rejoiced that the courts had upheld the true principles of commercial integrity.

Today, in the midst of a continental war, the future of English credit is shaken, commerce is interrupted, and all the wild fears awakened by an unexpected convulsion, have momentary sway.

Men should never take counsel of their fears, neither in war nor commerce.

They should never seek an easy way out of difficulty, but the straight way; the easy way is generally an evasion and dangerous; the straight way is difficult, but safe and honorable.—Louisville Post.

AN OBSERVANT TRAVELER.

(Palmyra Outlook.)

Dr. C. F. Pettit was in town court dry and returned home in the afternoon via Concord. He said he could not hear anything but dry weather talk here that day. On the eve of his departure from the city he found that the sixteen in the courthouse yard was dry and on his way home he saw a horse standing in a pond of water to tighten the shoes on his feet. At the farm of Ed Kidwell, near Concord, he saw a hog wearing a yoke. As he passed through that gang of horse swappers on the Milford pike he heard a jockey say to another: "Now, we have been trying to trade horses all day and I am going to make you the loser of a quarter to boot." The man said there was nothing short about him but he would take the quarter and give him both horses.

PITCHING MACHINE USED IN NEW BASEBALL GAME.

Automatic baseball, played on an enclosed court, is a novel game introduced on the Pacific coast this season. It is played with the assistance of a mechanical pitcher which throws regulation-size balls to the batter. In form of the player is an inclined canvas field marked into four divisions. Now as first, second, third and home base. The batter's score is the sum of the points earned by placing the batted balls in the various sections or bases. At the top of the canvas there is a spiral net catcher, which captures the balls and returns them to the machine. A picture of the device appears in the September Popular Mechanics Magazine.

STATE-FINANCED MONORAIL ROAD PROJECTED.

The lower house of the Massachusetts legislature recently approved a bill appropriating $5,000,000 for the construction of a high-speed monorail transportation system connecting Boston, New Bedford and Fall River. The proposed system, which is regarded seriously by many well-informed persons, is planned for a speed of 100 miles an hour. A picture in the September Popular Mechanics Magazine gives an idea of what the road will be.

VITAL STATISTICS

Show That Mountain Counties Are Not Living Up To Their Reputation.

Aint This Awful, Inogote?
There was a Mason County fellow named Inogote.
Who like a hostler was fond of his house.
But now since the War
He's crying, Har! Har!
Because for beans he must dig deeper
in his "Inogote."

SAYS THE TARIFF IS HALTING TRADE

Forner Speaker Cannon's Announcement as a Straight-Out Protectionist Candidate for Congress.

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat.)
Hannibal, Mo., July 29.—Joseph G. Cannon, former Speaker of the National House, today made formal announcement of his candidacy for Representative of the Eighteenth Illinois Congressional District. If nominated at the State primaries, September 3, Cannon says: "I will make a vigorous campaign for my election." This announcement says:

"In May last the Republican Congressional Committee met and with it many leading Republicans from each of the countries of the district. The committee and those in consultation with it intimated me that they had unanimously agreed to a resolution declaring it to be their judgment that the sentiment of Republicans generally favored my being a candidate for Congress."

"I had not sought the nomination and so told the committee, but after consultation I agreed to become a candidate, subject only to the primary election to be held on the 9th day of September. If nominated I will make a vigorous campaign for my election. I am another Republican should be chosen. I will make a vigorous campaign for his election."

"I have been a Republican since the organization of the party. During that time I have been your representative in Congress for 35 years, a member of the Committee on Appropriations for 21 years, and its chairman for 12 years. I was Speaker of the House for eight years."

"Since I first represented you the population of our country has leaped from 35,000,000 to 100,000,000. Our railway mileage has been multiplied by six."

"Product on the farm and in our industries has kept pace with the increase of means of transportation. All this has been by labor receiving compensation paid to our competitors in the world. This would be impossible without a tariff and equal to the difference of the cost of production in the world and in the United States. For this difference of a tax the Republican party stands and as one Republican I stand. This is Protection."

"In my judgment the tariff law now on the statute book, enacted by a subsequent Congress at the dictation of President Wilson, is responsible for the present condition of the country, which condition will not permanently improve until it is replaced by a law in harmony with Republican policies."

"The Republican party has ever been and is now a progressive party, but it stands for progress as conditions arise progress based on equity, not on hysteria flavored with demagoguery."

LIQUOR THE INCITING CAUSE IN 75 CASES OUT OF 70.

Hall's claim said: "I verily believe that if strong drink could be wiped out of the earth tonight, humanity would awake in the morning with more than half of its sins and sorrows gone."

And the statement of Judge Butler, of Cairo, Illinois, some time since at the close of a murder trial, would indicate that Hall's claim is moderate and safely within the truth. The statement of Judge Butler follows:

"The case at bar is the seventy-sixth murder case I have tried, either as state's attorney or as judge, during the past nineteen years. I have kept a careful record of each one, and I have to say that in seventy-five out of the seventy-six liquor was the inciting cause."—American Issue.

SISTER: READ MY FREE OFFER!

I am a woman.
I know a woman's trials.
I know her need of sympathy and help.
If you, my sister, are unhappy because of ill-health, if you feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or daily employment, write and tell me just how you suffer, and ask for my free ten days' trial of a home treatment suited to your needs. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any man. I want to tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 15 cents a week.
If you suffer from women's peculiar ailments causing pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight and dragging-down sensation, falling or displacement of pelvic organs, causing kidney and bladder weakness or constipation and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, fear of something evil about to happen, creeping feeling along the spine, palpitation, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast, or a general feeling that life is not worth living.
I INVITE YOU TO SEND TODAY FOR MY FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT
and learn how these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at home without the dangers and expense of an operation. When you are cured, and able to enjoy life again, you can pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain how to overcome green sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women and restore them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember, it costs you nothing to give my home treatment a ten days' trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If health is worth seeking for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free ten days' trial of my illustrated booklet, "Woman's Own Medical Adviser." I will send it in plain wrapper post-paid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your feelings, and return to me. Send today, as you may not see this offer again.

THE MATCHLESS MIDWAY COMING

"Beat Last Year," Is the Slogan of the State Fair Management

"Beat last year!" Is the slogan of the State Fair management which keeps the efforts and energies of the entire working organization on the crescendo each season and which makes a forecast for the coming celebration a dizzying process, but for the fair of September 14-19, Secretary J. L. Dent has achieved a coup in securing the Rice & Dore aggregation for the Midway that places the amusement end of the twelfth annual festival safely under the wire of victorious superiority.

That the Rice & Dore Carnival shows there is no better organization of the kind extant and they will offer pleasure seekers at the fair a lengthy list of new and alluring novelties.

Among the novelties will be the Water Circus, unique adjunct to a traveling organization. The Water Show is an aggregation of aquatic novelties in which thirty performers take part, and which all the wonders and witcheries of the New York Hippodrome Tank is displayed. There are world's champion male and female divers and swimmers, roller skaters, water walkers, high diving dogs and ponies, clown stunts and the amazing fact that whenever a performer's act is finished they disappear beneath the waves never to appear visible on the surface again, during that particular show, at least. The exhibition is a whirlwind of fun, mystery, beauty and thrill, devoid of a single objectionable or risqué feature and something that State Fair audiences have never witnessed heretofore.

Another out of the ordinary and exceedingly valuable exhibition will be a working model of the Panama Canal in charge of Captain Ladero, who worked under Colonel Goethals in Panama and who knows as much about the "big ditch" as an encyclopedia. Boats will pass back and forth carrying spectators over the fascinating of the canal and enabling them to witness the working of the Culbertson cut and the locks in perfect miniature.

The autodrome, with big cars taking the place of cycles in dashing their drivers around the inside of a globe at speed that renders them almost entirely invisible, will be a factor in the Midway excitement.

Kline & Garnett's Wild West Show will look like a "buffalo hunt" aggregation at its palest. Kline is the champion cowboy rider of the world and Garnett, the champion trick rider. In addition to their own exhibitions they have a company of star rough riding performers and wonderful trained animals which go to make up one of the best "wild and woolly" outfits in the show world.

In addition to these headlines the Midway will boast a remarkable mechanical device called "A Trip to Mars," a "Haunted Ronette Wheel," which is a "scream" a Congress of Fun Folks; a 10 to 1 layout of curiosities.

The Kentucky State Fair management has arranged a free amusement program which alone is worth the price of admission.

THE RULES OF WARFARE

Conditions That the Belligerent Armies Must Observe.

(New York Evening Telegram.)
At the Hague convention of 1864 certain rules were promulgated restraining the atrocities of warfare. To these rules the civilized nations of the world subscribed, and the United States and Mexico are among the signers.

At the foundation of all these rules lies the general declaration that "the right of belligerents to adopt means of injuring the enemy is not unlimited."

In the general interests of humanity these are the principal things which are forbidden:

To employ poison or poisoned arms.
To kill or wound treacherously individuals belonging to the hostile nation or army.
To kill or wound an enemy who, having laid down arms, or having no longer means of defense, has surrendered at discretion.

To declare that no quarter will be given.
To employ arms, projectiles or material of a nature to cause superfluous injury.

To make improper use of a flag of truce, the national flag or military ensigns and the enemy's uniform, as well as the distinctive badges of the Geneva (Red Cross) Convention.

To destroy or seize the enemy's property, unless such destruction or seizure be imperatively demanded by the necessities of war.

To attack or bombard towns, villages, habitations or buildings which are not defended.

To pillage a town or place, even when taken by assault.

To punish a spy, without trial, even if taken in the act, and a spy who, after joining the army to which he belongs, is subsequently captured by the enemy must be treated as a prisoner of war and incurs no responsibility for his previous act of espionage.

To compel the population of occupied territory to take part in military operations against its own country.

To bring pressure upon the population of occupied territory to take the oath of a hostile power.

To confiscate private property.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

IS YOUR BABY A "PERFECT" DARLING

Every Mother Thinks Her's Flawless The Babies' Health Contest Will Tell—Scientific Examination and Competition.

"Isn't it a perfect darling!" admirers of "King Ruby" might exclaim, but the modern mother, instead of heaping with pride on her own, will turn an appraising eye on her adored youngster and wisely murmur:

"I don't know, but I'm going to find out in the Babies' Health Contest at the State Fair."

And in this reply is demonstrated the march of progress which leads a fair management to feature a baby show based on scientific appraisal of the physical condition of a child instead of on the beauty of its dimples, curls or limpid eyes, and the growing enlightenment of parents who seek to discover the shortcomings of their offspring as scientific stock raisers gauge the merits of their cattle, instead of glowing over ephemeral loveliness which might soon be dimmed by ailments or deformities unsuspected by baby's loving guardians.

The Health Contest is a movement which has swept with amazing rapidity over the entire country and was introduced at the State Fair last season for the first time in the history of the State.

The object of the Health Contest is the promotion of hygienic methods in child raising, along much the same lines as fair exhibitors follow in scientific stock raising and appraising.

The movement was first introduced as an offering of the Mothers' Health Congress held at the Louisiana State Fair at Shreveport in 1908, and the importance of the results were so universally recognized that states nearly all over the union rapidly followed suit.

The Babies' Health Contest will, this year, be under the supervision of Mrs. John D. Woodbury, and examinations will be made during the first three days of the fair in a newly constructed Babies' building which will have transparent walls through which spectators may observe the processes of measuring and weighing the toddlers.

Babies from 12 to 36 months are eligible and the entry lists will not close until September 3. Entry blanks for the Babies' Health Contest may be obtained by application to Kentucky State Fair headquarters in the Paul Jones building.

In deference to numerous inquiries and requests last season for an entry class for twins in the Babies' contest, this department has been added and twins will be judged on a separate standard of merit.

The Kentucky State Fair management has arranged a free amusement program which alone is worth the price of admission.

TRIBUTE TO A GENTLE CHRISTIAN WOMAN.

As the shades of night closed over the old village of Washington in the county, on Tuesday evening, August 18th, 1911, there passed to her rest a dear home, Mary W. Pomeroy, daughter of Joseph and Jane Pomeroy, in the 71st year of her age.

For several years it has been apparent to her friends, that "Consistent" as she has been affectionately known by nearly the whole community, was gently passing to the home of the Heavenly Father whom she loved so well, and the path to whose home she had so patiently tried to reach to the thoughtless boys and girls of Washington, and also that the Savior she loved so well, would be their Savior too.

How patient, how cheerful, how considerate, no one but those who through life came in close touch with her Christ-like character can understand. It was the writer's privilege to have been a student in her school in Washington some thirty-nine years ago, and also for many years in her Sunday School class, and while sad in the thought that she has passed from us, still well we know she is where she wished to be with her loved ones who have gone before, "to that house not made with hands."

As we pass into the twilight of life, and as those who have been the friends of our youth and mature age pass away, it is then we fully realize their loss, as nothing can take the place of our childhood friends and companions. This is a faint echo of the sentiment of the community in which the deceased lived her life. Her example and teachings will be always have with us, but her presence is no more.

Peace to her ashes.

A FRIEND.

There is a good deal of controversy as to whether home or the summer resort is the healthiest place. Buck Kilby says, of the two, the healthiest place is, wherever one chances to be.

Judging by the graduates with whom we have come in contact, we gather that practically all of the first class schools for girls teach the Southern dialect.

The greatest limitation in which the average man can be subjected is to force him to admit that he was wrong.

BEAUTIFUL RECEPTION AT MAPLEWOOD.

Wednesday afternoon the handsome home of Mrs. Anderson Finch was thrown open to the a large company of invited guests to a reception in honor of Miss Ellen Fitzgerald Shanklin.

Mrs. Finch was assisted in receiving by Miss Shanklin, Miss Glenn Arthur, Miss Koff, and Miss Mary Finch.

Others who helped dispense the hospitalities of the occasion were Mrs. James Finch, Mrs. Hugh Warder, Mrs. M. A. Davis, Mrs. A. S. Shanklin, Misses Clark, Hopper, Koff and Clift. Misses Frances Clark and Columbia Clift presided at the frappe table.

The home, with its handsome interior decorations, makes a fine setting for an occasion like this, was artistically decorated with pink gladioli and green foliage and lighted with candles in pink shades, except the dining room which was in red.

The lace covered mahogany table was decorated with a magnificent centerpiece of red gladioli, and lighted with candles in silver candle sticks and red shades.

The delicious ices and cakes were also in red and white. Music from a stringed band added to the enjoyment, and with the soft lights and flowers and happy radiant faces and beautiful costumes of the wearers made the scene one of rare beauty.

Miss Ellen Fitzgerald Shanklin is to be married early in October to Mr. Virgil Robb, a native Mason Canadian but now of Florida.

The guests were from Flemingsburg, Maysville and the adjoining country.

Buyers to Share in Profits Lower Prices on Ford Cars

Effective from August 1st, 1914, to August 1st, 1915, and guaranteed against any reduction in that time:

Touring Car $190
Runabout 140
Town Car 90

(In the United States of America only)

Further, we will be able to obtain the maximum efficiency in our factory production, and the minimum cost in our purchasing and sales departments if we can reach an output of 300,000 cars between the above dates.

And should we reach this production, we agree to pay as the buyer's share from $40 to $80 per car (on or about August 1, 1915) to every retail buyer who purchases a new Ford car between August 1st, 1914, and August 1st, 1915. For further particulars regarding these low prices and profit-sharing plan, see the
